NATURE OF THE CASE

1. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated seeking damages and any other available legal or equitable remedies resulting from the illegal actions of Defendant, AMERICAN SENIOR FUNDING CORPORATION. (“Defendant”), in negligently, knowingly, and/or willfully contacting Plaintiff on Plaintiff’s home telephone in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47. U.S.C. § 227 et seq. (“TCPA”) and related regulations, specifically the National Do-Not-Call provisions, thereby invading Plaintiff’s privacy.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

2. Jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2) because Plaintiff, a resident of California, seeks relief on behalf of a Class, which will result in at least one class member belonging to a different state than that of Defendant, a California corporation. Plaintiff also seeks up to $1,500.00 in damages for each call in violation of the TCPA, which, when aggregated among a proposed class in the thousands, exceeds the $5,000,000.00 threshold for federal court jurisdiction. Therefore, both diversity jurisdiction and the damages threshold under the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 (“CAFA”) are present, and this Court has jurisdiction.

3. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Central District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because Defendant does business within the State of California and Plaintiff resides within the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff, CAROLYN NAVARRO (“Plaintiff”), is a natural person residing in West Covina, California and is a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153(39).

5. Defendant, AMERICAN SENIOR FUNDING CORPORATION. (“Defendant”) is a reverse mortgage provider, and is a “person” as defined by 47

U.S.C. § 153(39).

6. The above named Defendants, and their subsidiaries and agents, are collectively referred to as "Defendants." The true names and capacities of the Defendants sued herein as DOE DEFENDANTS 1 through 10, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues such Defendants by fictitious names. Each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible for the unlawful acts alleged herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of Court to amend the Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the DOE Defendants when such identities become known.

7. Plaintiff is informed and believes that at all relevant times, each and every Defendant was acting as an agent and/or employee of each of the other Defendants and was acting within the course and scope of said agency and/or employment with the full knowledge and consent of each of the other Defendants. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the acts and/or omissions complained of herein was made known to, and ratified by, each of the other Defendants.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. Beginning in or around October of 2016, and continuing on through November of 2016, Defendant contacted Plaintiff on Plaintiff's home telephone number ending in -0972, in an attempt to solicit Plaintiff to purchase Defendant's services.

9. Plaintiff's home telephone number ending in -0972 was added to the National Do-Not-Call Registry on or about July 27, 2003.

10. Defendant contacted or attempted to contact Plaintiff from telephone numbers including (302) 307-1421.

11. Defendant's calls constituted calls that were not for emergency purposes as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).

12. Such calls constitute solicitation calls pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c)(2), as they were an attempt to promote or sell Defendant's services.

13. Plaintiff has received numerous solicitation calls from Defendant within a 12-month period.

14. Plaintiff did not have an established business relationship with Defendant during the time of the solicitation calls from Defendant.

15. Plaintiff expressly asked Defendant to stop calling in one of Defendant's earlier phone calls.

16. However, Defendants continued to call Plaintiff.

17. Plaintiff did not give Defendant prior express written consent for Defendant to call Plaintiff's home telephone for marketing or solicitation purposes.

18. Plaintiff requested for Defendant to stop calling Plaintiff during one of the initial calls from Defendant, thus revoking any prior express consent that had existed and terminating any established business relationship that had existed, as defined under 16 C.F.R. 310.4(b)(iii)(B).

19. Plaintiff's request for Defendant to stop calling Plaintiff terminated any established business relationship that may have existed between Plaintiff and Defendant pursuant to 47 CFR § 64.1200(f)(5)(i).

20. Despite this, Defendant continued to call Plaintiff in an attempt to solicit its services and in violation of the National Do-Not-Call provisions of the TCPA thus repeatedly violating Plaintiff's privacy.

21. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendant failed to establish and implement reasonable practices and procedures to effectively prevent telephone solicitations in violation of the regulations prescribed under 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

22. The class concerning the National Do-Not-Call violation (hereafter “The DNC Class”) is defined as follows:

All persons within the United States registered on the National Do-Not-Call Registry for at least 30 days, who had not granted

Defendant prior express consent nor had a prior established business relationship, who received more than one call made by or on behalf of Defendant that promoted Defendant's products or services, within any twelve-month period, within four years prior to the filing of the complaint.

23. The class concerning the National Do-Not-Call violation following revocation of consent and prior business relationship, to the extent they existed (hereafter “The DNC Revocation Class”) is defined as follows:

All persons within the United States registered on the National Do-Not-Call Registry for at least 30 days, who received more than one call made by or on behalf of Defendant that promoted Defendant's products or services, after having revoked consent and any prior established business relationship, within any twelve-month period, within four years prior to the filing of the complaint.

24. Plaintiff represents, and is a member of, The DNC Class, consisting of all persons within the United States registered on the National Do-Not-Call Registry for at least 30 days, who had not granted Defendant prior express consent nor had a prior established business relationship, who received more than one call made by or on behalf of Defendant that promoted Defendant's products or services, within any twelve-month period, within four years prior to the filing of the complaint.

25. Plaintiff represents, and is a member of, The DNC Revocation Class, consisting of all persons within the United States registered on the National Do-Not-Call Registry for at least 30 days, who received more than one call made by or on behalf of Defendant that promoted Defendant's products or services, after having revoked consent and any prior established business relationship, within any twelve-month period, within four years prior to the filing of the complaint.

26. Defendant, their employees and agents are excluded from The

1 Classes. Plaintiff does not know the number of members in The Classes, but
2 believes the Classes members number in the thousands, if not more. Thus, this
3 matter should be certified as a Class Action to assist in the expeditious litigation of 4 the matter.

5 27. The Classes are so numerous that the individual joinder of all of its
6 members is impractical. While the exact number and identities of The Classes
7 members are unknown to Plaintiff at this time and can only be ascertained through
8 appropriate discovery, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that
9 The Classes includes thousands of members. Plaintiff alleges that The Classes
10 members may be ascertained by the records maintained by Defendant.

11 28. Plaintiff and members of The DNC Class and DNC Revocation Class
12 were harmed by the acts of Defendant in at least the following ways: Defendant
13 illegally contacted Plaintiff and DNC Class and DNC Revocation Class members
14 via their telephones for solicitation purposes, thereby invading the privacy of said
15 Plaintiff and the DNC Class and DNC Revocation Class members whose telephone
16 numbers were on the National Do-Not-Call Registry. Plaintiff and the DNC Class
17 and DNC Revocation Class members were damaged thereby.

18 29. Common questions of fact and law exist as to all members of The
19 DNC Class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual
20 members of The DNC Class. These common legal and factual questions, which do
21 not vary between DNC Class members, and which may be determined without 22 reference to the individual circumstances of any DNC Class members, include, but 23 are not limited to, the following:

24 a. Whether, within the four years prior to the filing of this
25 Complaint, Defendant or their agents placed more than one
26 solicitation call to the members of the DNC Class whose
27 telephone numbers were on the National Do-Not-Call Registry
28 and who had not granted prior express consent to Defendant and

1 did not have an established business relationship with
2 Defendant;

3 b. Whether Defendant obtained prior express written consent to
4 place solicitation calls to Plaintiff or the DNC Class members'
5 telephones;

6 c. Whether Plaintiff and the DNC Class member were damaged
7 thereby, and the extent of damages for such violation; and

8 d. Whether Defendant and their agents should be enjoined from
9 engaging in such conduct in the future.

10 30. As a person who received numerous solicitation calls from Defendant
11 within a 12-month period, who had not granted Defendant prior express consent
12 and did not have an established business relationship with Defendant, Plaintiff is 13 asserting claims that are typical of the DNC Class.

14 31. Common questions of fact and law exist as to all members of The
15 DNC Class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual
16 members of The DNC Revocation Class. These common legal and factual
17 questions, which do not vary between DNC Revocation Class members, and which
18 may be determined without reference to the individual circumstances of any DNC
19 Revocation Class members, include, but are not limited to, the following:

20 a. Whether, within the four years prior to the filing of this
21 Complaint, Defendant or their agents placed more than one
22 solicitation call to the members of the DNC Class whose
23 telephone numbers were on the National Do-Not-Call Registry
24 and who had revoked any prior express consent and any
25 established business relationship with Defendants;

26 b. Whether Plaintiff and the DNC Class member were damaged
27 thereby, and the extent of damages for such violation; and

28 c. Whether Defendant and their agents should be enjoined from engaging in such conduct in the future.

32. As a person who received numerous solicitation calls from Defendant within a 12-month period, who, to the extent one existed, had revoked any prior express consent and any established business relationship with Defendant, Plaintiff is asserting claims that are typical of the DNC Revocation Class.

33. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the members of The Classes. Plaintiff has retained attorneys experienced in the prosecution of class actions.

34. A class action is superior to other available methods of fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since individual litigation of the claims of all Classes members is impracticable. Even if every Classes member could afford individual litigation, the court system could not. It would be unduly burdensome to the courts in which individual litigation of numerous issues would proceed. Individualized litigation would also present the potential for varying, inconsistent, or contradictory judgments and would magnify the delay and expense to all parties and to the court system resulting from multiple trials of the same complex factual issues. By contrast, the conduct of this action as a class action presents fewer management difficulties, conserves the resources of the parties and of the court system, and protects the rights of each Classes member.

35. The prosecution of separate actions by individual Classes members would create a risk of adjudications with respect to them that would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the other Classes members not parties to such adjudications or that would substantially impair or impede the ability of such non-party Class members to protect their interests.

36. Defendant has acted or refused to act in respects generally applicable to The Classes, thereby making appropriate final and injunctive relief with regard to the members of the Classes as a whole.
